MFMA UPDATE: JANUARY 2025.

Hi everyone, it's me Grand Master Daw here from the MFMA. This is just a quick update for anyone who wants to find out the MFMA news.

Bad news first. I have expelled a student called Richard Nielsen for acting like a knob and falsely claiming to be a martial arts expert. Rich was all about getting the highest ranks and being the boss, yet he never trained. Rich was bullshitting everybody and it came to my attention via a YouTube video. Rich has been making things up as he went along, and I cannot tolerate that nonsense in my schools. I understand that Rich was running Facebook pages of my schools, please ignore them and Rich also. For more details, see my post on my blog below:

The MFMA is a serious martial arts school. Whilst there is no pressure to do anything once you become an MFMA member, those who claim high ranks and yet never trained are only fooling themselves. I train five times a week, and have been since the start of 2008. In the 1990s I was training all the time as well, mostly in Taekwondo. My point is that if you claim to be an expert in martial arts and don't practice what you preach, you only have yourself to blame, should you get confronted. I won't be there to save you.

In the martial arts real world, you get what you put into it. If you train hard and regularly, your skills will reflect your efforts. I have the most respect for my students that train hard and live the martial arts in real life. A thousand forums and comments online are not worth one hour of real training. Keep up the good work, those of you who are training in real life.

Now the good news. The MFMA is now an official Black Dragon Fighting Society school! I am over the moon with this, and in the future, the Snake Fist Karate Federation and Global Shorinkenjitsu Academy are also going to be BDFS as well. Basically, I will still handle the clubs, but BDFS sort out all memberships from now on. I am friendly with Ashida Kim, and we are collaborating on getting things set up. I am thrilled with how things are going. The MFMA website is below.

In the past, I was practically giving away memberships and whilst many of my students live and breathe martial arts, my generosity backfired, in that it also attracted troublemakers. The BDFS attracts those who want to at least try to be the best of the best, so it deters potential ninnies.

For those who don't know, my courses have all moved to Gumroad now. If anyone wants info on any courses, simply email me and ask. All of my courses are here:

If you bought a course years ago and would like it on Gumroad, give me a shout and I'll do my best to set you up asap. You won't have to pay anything.

Regards,

Grand Master Daw.
